ADACCV and CV CARES Announce Changes in DFC Personnel

San Angelo, TX – The Alcohol & Drug Abuse Council for the Concho Valley (ADACCV) and the Concho Valley C.A.R.E.S. Coalition would like to announce changes in the Drug-Free Communities (DFC) staff. Mrs. Julie Alonso, the current DFC Program Director, will be relocating to Washington State with her family. Her last day with ADACCV and C.A.R.E.S. will be Friday, July 15th.

Ms. E. Angelina Osornio, who is currently the DFC Coordinator, will advance to the DFC Program Director role. Ms. Osornio has been with ADACCV and C.A.R.E.S. since October 2008. She explained, “I am excited by this new opportunity. Julie was my supervisor and did a wonderful job to prepare me for this move. She was an excellent mentor and I hope to continue the great work she started.”

Mrs. Jennifer Pittman has been hired as the new DFC Coordinator. Mrs. Pittman holds a Masters Degree in Public Health from Walden University and has previous experience working with the public in the nonprofit sector. Mrs. Pittman is new to the community and hails from North Carolina.

When Mrs. Pittman was asked about why she was interested in the substance abuse prevention field, she explained, “I have a passion for uplifting and empowering the community in relation to Public Health, so it was only natural that I would be drawn to a position like this. My family is excited about our new home and this role will allow me a chance to meet the wonderful people that make up this community.”

In 2007, CV CARES formed with the mission of creating an environment that encourages the elimination of substance abuse so children and families can thrive. Now a coalition of the Alcohol & Drug Abuse Council for the Concho Valley, a nonprofit 501(c)3, CV CARES boasts a collaboration of over 40 agencies and individuals from 12 sectors of our community.
